

DAVE STANGIS
PARTNER, CHIEF SUSTAINABILITY OFFICER
APOLLO GLOBAL MANAGEMENT

Dave was appointed Apollo's first Chief Sustainability Officer and member of the Management Committee in 2021. He is designing and spearheading Apollo's enterprise-wide ESG and sustainability strategy. He is driving new operational rigor and positive impact around the globe leveraging Sustainability and Energy Transition as critical components of Apollo's long-term growth strategy. He is building new models of governance, capability, metric systems, reporting/communications, risk assessment and issue management to deliver value creation in one of the world's leading alternative asset management firms.

Dave most recently served as Chief Sustainability Officer and VP Corporate Responsibility/ Public Affairs at Campbell Soup Company, where he reported to Campbell's President and CEO. Dave also advised a range of leading companies across sectors on ESG, technology, reputation and resiliency strategies as Founder and CEO of 21C Impact.

Over the course of 20 years, Dave led two very different Fortune 500 corporations, Intel and Campbell, from a standing start to clear and consistent world-class leadership in ESG, Sustainability & Social Responsibility. He guided both companies to multi-year runs on the Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes, the 100 Best Corporate Citizens List, the Most Reputable Companies in the U.S, World's Most Sustainable Corporations, and recognition among the World's Most Ethical Companies.

At Campbell, he created and led the Company's strategies and external engagement related to ESG, Responsible Sourcing, Sustainable Agriculture, Public Affairs and Operational Sustainability. He served as an infotech and biotech expert.

Dave has served on the boards of many non-profits and two Public Benefit Corporations (Plum Organics and The Soufull Project). As Chair of the Board at Net Impact, a global community of 100,000 emerging leaders, he led a successful CEO search and transition.

As the creator and leader of Intel's Global Corporate Responsibility function, Dave established corporate governance processes, operationalized citizenship and sustainability, and managed activist campaigns.

Dave has been named to the 100 Most Influential in Business Ethics by Ethisphere Magazine in 2008 & 2013, and a Top 100 Thought Leader in Trustworthy Business Behavior by Trust Across America every year from 2011 to 2014. He is an Entrepreneur in Residence at Babson College, an Executive Advisor for the Center for Corporate Citizenship at Boston College and a Mentor to the AgFunder Network. Dave serves as an Advisor to Magnomer and Stoj; and is the co-author of two books on strategic corporate citizenship. Sept. 2018.

Dave earned a B.S. (Chemistry/Biology) from the University of Detroit, an M.S. in Occupational and Environmental Health from Wayne State University, and an M.B.A (Finance/Gen. Management) from the University of Michigan.
